Description:

The Allama Iqbal Open University was established in 1974 with the main objectives of providing educational opportunities to masses and to those who cannot leave their homes and jobs. It was the second Open University in the world and first in Asia and Africa. During all these past years, the University has more than fulfilled this promise and has opened up new opportunities for millions, particularly women, and supplemented the efforts of the federal and provincial governments in a big way and that too without becoming a burden on their resources.

At present the University have four faculties (Faculty of Sciences, Faculty of Social Sciences & Humanities, Faculty of Arabic & Islamic Studies and Faculty of Education) comprised of 35 academic departments with average student enrolment of more than 1.4 million per year, where more than 50% are females, and more than 2000 courses are being offered. AIU has a network of 54 regional offices/campuses throughout the Pakistan. More than 70 percent of its students are employed.
