ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN

BUILDING AWARENESS FOR THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT

Pakistan Engineering Council has endorsed the M.Sc./MS degree of Environmental Design for Engineers as value added degree with CPD Credit Points.

Salient Features

-  Environmental Design Programme presents a number of futuristic strategies that can be used in the process of design to improve the harmony between the user, the building and the environment in which it is placed.
-  Focus is placed on Ecological Sustainable Design, Conservation of Resources, Selection of Environment Friendly Building Materials and Processes, Conservation of Culture and Heritage, Women Friendly Environment, Environmental Impact Assessment and Building Evaluation Techniques.
-  Research based value added degree aimed at upgrading professional practice of engineers, planners and designers also to provide better job prospects at home and abroad.
-  One year Diploma for the potential students who are unable to join 2 year degree programme due to their demanding job commitments.
-  Face to face attendance is required in lecture session and workshops. At the end of a semester all the courses will terminate in three days workshops.
